

John J. "Boss" McLaughlin Tells Police He Was Given Ransom Money to Circulate

POLICEMAN IS KILLED DURING PARIS RIOTING

"Red May Day" Eve Brings Disorder In France

By Richard Massock, Associated Press Foreign Staff.
Paris, April 30.—(P)—A policeman was killed and many officers and civilians were wounded tonight in political rioting in France on the eve of "Red May Day."
Grave fears were held of possible outbreaks in Paris, where 10,000 troops and 30,000 police guarded the capital as the government prepared to deal sternly with a Communist general strike tomorrow.
Fierce fighting broke out at 8:30 when a leftist mob gathered outside a hall to protest a meeting of the Doumergue government.
Numbers were injured in hand-to-hand fighting and a policeman died of his injuries soon afterward in a hospital.
A report that a revolutionary plot aimed at six European capitals was uncovered in Paris Sunday in Brussels and Malines put police fear on their alert.

Priest Wounded.
Leftist numbering 400, incensed over a close election Sunday, rioted tonight at Mantes, not far from Paris, and wounded a priest before being dispersed by gendarmes. Similar disorders occurred there last night because of the defeat of an "anti-Fascist" candidate in a by-election.
Three youths who said they were venting their hate for "the middle class" by stoning automobiles were arrested in Compiègne.

Ten demonstrators and three police were injured at Mantes in intermittent fighting which lasted until nearly midnight, when the rock throwing crowds were dispersed. They broke numerous windows.
This capital, not yet recovered from the sanguinary February street riots and seething with political discontent, resembled a war camp ready to erupt into a general strike.
Determination to "crush any revolutionary movements at the outset" which might, he said, "lead to armed invasion."

Heavy detachments of soldiers patrolled the "Red River" of factory suburbs, notorious hotbeds of conspiracy; bristling stacks of bayoneted rifles filled the broad Champs Elysees.
Two public reviews of troops were staged today to drive home the government's resolve that the "Red Labor Day" must be quiet.

An accidental casualty occurred as these precautions went forward. A Communist was seriously burned in trying to tie a power line in suburban Pierre Platte.

Violent political enemies, such as that which flared in Mantes last night when 2,000 stone-throwing anti-Fascists battled police for five hours, presented a greater threat than the strikers, who are generally expected to be few.

Water, gas, electric, telephone, telegraph and transportation services are expected to continue normal tomorrow, since the strike will be effective mainly in the government tobacco and cartridge factories and in the building trades.

Streets will be without taxis, for the drivers, as customary on May Day, will be on strike.

STABILIZATION FUND IS SETUP BY TREASURY

$2,000,000,000 Ready To Guide Dollar Abroad

Washington, April 30.—(P)—First evidence of administration use of its vast money-managing powers was continued today in a routine treasury statement which officials refused flatly to explain.
"The figures must speak for themselves," was the only reply to questions about a new bookkeeping set-up making the $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund ready for guiding the dollar abroad.

What the figures showed was a $2,000,000,000 expenditure to the account of "exchange stabilization fund." Of this $200,000,000 apparently was deposited with the federal reserve system for active use and $1,800,000,000 held in reserve in the treasury.

Dollar Weakness
In some unofficial quarters the move was believed prompted by recent weakness of the dollar abroad and in anticipation of possible further declines from the gold par with French francs.

Secretary Morgenthau said about a week ago that the treasury would sell gold for export if the dollar reached the export point which would make such shipments profitable to the dealers.

Whether today's step included actual dealing in foreign exchange could not be discovered from the treasury's daily statement and Morgenthau only reiterated his past refusal to ever discuss the stabilization fund.

But this was a chief purpose of creating the fund in the gold reserve act which said the secretary of the treasury, with the president's approval, for the purpose of stabilizing the exchange value of the dollar, could "deal in gold and foreign exchange and such other instruments of credit and securities as he may deem necessary to carry out the purpose of this section."

In addition, the treasury also may invest the fund in government securities but is not believed to have done so to date.
How long the treasury has had any stabilization money on deposit with the reserve banks was not indicated, but April 27 when the "exchange stabilization fund" was entered on the books, gold certificate holdings of the reserve board jumped $101,000,000. Some experts believed another $99,000,000 had been deposited previously with the New York Federal Reserve bank, the treasury's fiscal agent.

Since January 31 when the dollar was revalued at 86.06 cents in gold content, the treasury gold stock has increased $747,000,000 to its present high of $7,555,670,740.

These purchases, however, need not involve spending out of the stabilization fund. New gold certificates to the sum of $35 for every ounce are issued to cover disbursements. These certificates are held in the treasury and reserve banks as the basis for other forms of currency for which the gold is sold.

BIRTH OF TEST TUBE TWINS HAS BEEN DISCLOSED

"Laboratory Baby" Technique Is Successful

New York, April 30.—(P)—Birth of "test tube" twins disclosed today a "laboratory baby" technique that has been successful in 12 cases.

Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Lauricella, who had been childless eight years, were so pleased when their two babies were born that they revealed the secret.

Dr. Frances Seymour and Dr. Alfred Koerner, both graduates of the Medical College of Virginia and now practicing in New York, they said they had conducted a series of successful experiments for the past two years, but expressed surprise at public interest in the results.

Dr. Iago Galdston, secretary of the medical information bureau of New York Academy of Medicine, said he too was surprised that a "test tube baby" should evoke excitement.

Idea Is Old.
"The idea historically is at least two thousand years old," Dr. Galdston said. "In practice it has been used for at least 150 years."

Dr. Seymour, a woman obstetrician, said "usually parents do not want publicity about this kind of thing. I suppose they were so happy about getting twins that they just couldn't contain themselves."

A process of artificial insemination has resulted in eight births and five other deliveries are expected at an early date, Dr. Seymour and her associate disclosed.

Dr. Seymour asserted none of the women could have borne children except through the intervention of science and disclosed also that two unmarried women, given babies with the assistance of anonymous fathers, were included in the series of experiments.

Law Enforcement Officers Thruout World Prepare For "May Day" Demonstrations

CRIME WAVE IS STILL SWEEPING OVER COUNTRY

Federal, State And Local Officials Put On Heat

By The Associated Press
The "beat" was still "on" today in the crime war throughout the country. Yesterday's principal developments:
John Dillinger, slippery Indiana desperado, remained a missing quantity, although hundreds of policemen throughout the middle west were seeking him. Four men, one identified by police as Dillinger and the others as his henchmen, slugged a policeman in Chicago suburbs, Hillside, disarmed two others and escaped after a running gunfight.

U. S. agents won a major victory against another important gang when they forced from John J. "Boss" McLaughlin, Chicago politician, an alleged confession that he had helped dispose of $52,000 of the $200,000 in small bills paid for the ransom of Edward Bremer, St. Paul banker, several months ago. McLaughlin, his son, and two other men have confessed, it was announced, and stand charged with conspiracy.

Girl Still Missing
June Robles, 6-year-old victim of kidnappers in Tucson, Ariz., was still missing, although $15,000 in cash was ready for her ransom. The search also extended to Mexico, where her grandfather had gone to seek her and had not been heard from since. All official searches and investigations, however, were halted momentarily to give the girl's relatives opportunity to contact the abductors.

John Mauler, uncle of the missing Robles girl in Glendale, Calif., said he received a telegram stating that the parents had been asked by the kidnappers to call off all authorities in the case for negotiations. He said vengeance on the part of someone dealing with the girl's grandfather was blamed for the abduction. Meanwhile, department of justice agents crossed the Mexican border, supposedly in connection with the Robles case.

At Almore, Ala., four handbills robbed the bank at Almore of approximately $1,500 yesterday and escaped toward the Florida line in an automobile.

Attorneys for Alphonse Capone, Chicago's prime hoodlum of prohibition days, appeared in U. S. circuit court in New Orleans to renew their fight for his freedom from an 11-year sentence, on the claim that the statute of limitations had run.

Law officers at Crisfield, Md., outsmarted a mob of several hundred angry Marylanders and captured a negro who had wounded a policeman, moving him to safety in a Baltimore jail before the intending lynchmen knew he had been caught.

In Boston, Mass., five men took a bag containing $14,000 cash and $2,800 checks from a Sears, Roebuck and company cashier.

In Pittsburgh, Pa., a union war was blamed for explosions of four bombs in theaters, which did $19,000 damage.

Dr. D. F. Russell of Van Wert, O., took his family back home from Cincinnati after having, he said, received threats that his daughter, Virginia, 20, would be kidnapped unless he paid $5,000.

Three convicts who fled the Ohio state prison at Columbus, O., were still at large while prison officials sought to learn how they had gotten the pistol they used to cow guards.

Housing three convicted members of the "Dillinger gang," two of them sentenced to death, the prison had been under exceptionally rigid scrutiny several weeks.

The search for two men who escaped from the Chester, Ill., penitentiary turned to southeastern Missouri after they had been seen, still in prison denim, boarding a freight train.

In San Antonio, Tex., a gun shop proprietor, H. S. Leberman, 29, was said by federal agents to have admitted selling firearms to George "Baby Face" Nelson, Dillinger machine gunner. Leberman was released under $2,000 temporary bond, returnable at 10 a. m. today.

SETTLEMENT OF AUTO STRIKES NEAR, CLAIM

National Labor Board Is Preparing For Conferences

By The Associated Press
Early settlement of troublesome strikes that have tied up 10 plants of the Fisher Body corporation was anticipated last night as members of the National Automobile Labor Board prepared for conferences.
Members of the board were pleased with ending of a strike that had left 8,400 workers idle in the corporation's Cleveland plant. Progress in settling other strikes of the corporation was expected with the opening of the Labor Board hearings in Detroit.

Another Cleveland strike was ended when union employees returned to work at the Chase Copper and Brass company. About 850 employees are affected.

Bright Spot
Another bright spot on the labor map was at Camden, N. J., where 2,000 employees of the Campbell Soup company went back to work on a higher wage scale after striking.

The Camden incident was somewhat offset, however, by reports from Houston, Tex., that 4,000 longshoremen employees in Texas Gulf states had threatened to strike unless they were granted wage increases.

NRA's proposal for a 10 percent cut in working hours throughout industry and an accompanying increase in wages was announced in Washington with a declaration from the durable goods industries committee to Gen. Hugh S. Johnson would "regard and not encourage recovery."

Strikers gathered at the Chevrolet and Fisher Body plants at Leeds, Mo., a suburb of Kansas City. E. G. Shaw, manager of the Chevrolet unit, said his firm was operating at 90 percent of its usual production and Charles Metcalf, manager of the body factory, said his organization was functioning.

W. G. Patterson, chairman of the strike committee, said neither plant was operating at 50 percent of normal production. The strike protests the dropping of a night shift and the discharge of about 40 men.

National Guardsmen were mobilized for possible trouble in the coal mining area of southwest Missouri upon receipt of word that hundreds of miners were en route from Pittsburgh, Kas., to Lamar, Mo., to blow up steam shovels.

Officials said deep diggers were disgruntled because their sides were virtually idle while the strikers continued work under a temporary NRA code.

President C. E. Johnston of the Kansas City Southern Railroad announced a new wage agreement had been signed with union trainmen. Effective for a year and regarded as a compromise between the "southern" plan and the old rules governing employees, the pact affects engineers, firemen, conductors and yardmen, and averts a threatened strike. Wages and hours remain unchanged.

John Dillinger and His Gang Disarm Three Policemen Near Chicago and Make Getaway

ABDUCTORS OF JUNE ROBLES AWAIT SIGNAL

Kidnapers Of Little Girl Are South Of Border, Claim

Chicago, April 30.—(P)—The hunt for John Dillinger and his career criminal crew centered in Chicago tonight when one of three officers disarmed by the marauders in an early morning encounter identified the gang chief as the man who led the outlaws in the brief skirmish.
"It was Dillinger, all right," Policeman Harry Wayland emphatically declared as he gingerly rubbed a bump raised on his head by the ubiquitous arch-criminal. "I've studied his photograph enough to recognize him when I see him. He has shaved off his mustache and appears to be heavier, especially about the jaws. I'm sure it was Dillinger."

Wayland, cruiser with Lieut. Joseph Hanneister and Patrolman Gus Nendze, picked up the trail of the fugitives' car (Ford) as it raced down the Mannheim road west of the city. For two and a half miles the machines raced down the highway, with the pace gradually lifted to 75 miles an hour.

Apparently believing they had distanced their pursuers, the four gunmen put in at a filling station in suburban Hillside. With a curt "Give us some gas in a hurry," the leader and companions named as George "Baby Face" Nelson, Harry Fox and other Homer Van Meter or John Hamilton stepped out.

The police car screamed to a halt and the officers jumped to the ground. They were confronted by the gang chief, a machine gun in his hands and a leer on his lips as he spat out: "Stick 'em up."

"I recognized Dillinger and I thought the jig was up for me," Wayland related. The policemen were stripped of their weapons and left to cogitate, their arms in the air, on the desperado's hatred for the law's representatives.

The man identified as Dillinger suddenly and without provocation smashed Wayland over the head with the muzzle of his machine gun. Two bullets whistled harmlessly into the darkness as the officer sprawled on the ground. The nomads hurried to their machine, maroon under its coat of mud and dust, and swept away.

Officials conjectured that the bandit band was seeking to regain the sanctuary of old hideouts they once haunted. At the time Dillinger stormed through a police ambuscade on the north side last fall, authorities revealed he had rented a number of flags in the territory once dominated by the defunct Touhy combine. Whether the ace outlaw and his aides would endeavor to reach Ohio—where three of Dillinger's companions are in the penitentiary and where the governor was recently threatened—was not commented upon by law enforcement executives.

Meanwhile, a ramification of the who confessed dealings with the Dillinger desperado from the crime map developed in Texas, where an armorer who consorted dealings with the Dillinger outfit was arrested.

TAX DELINQUENCY DATE EXTENDED UNTIL JUNE 1

Signing of Bill Gives Local Tax Payers Month of Grace For Payment

Springfield, Ill., April 30.—(P)—Governor Horner today signed a bill extending from May 1 to June 1 the tax delinquency date.

The 1933 taxes on real and personal property were due and payable before May 1, 1934, under the old law, but the governor's action in signing the measure today extends the payment date for one month. The extension was made necessary by the tardiness of many counties in mailing out the tax statements. The House passed the legislation last week and the Senate some time ago.

The extension of the tax delinquency date will mean that Morgan county tax payers have an additional month in which they may make payment. Believing that the delinquency date would occur today there has been a rush by local tax officers, during the past few days in the office of the collector, Sheriff Fletcher J. Blackburn, to make payment of the first installment of the real estate taxes and all of the personal property taxes.

Sheriff Blackburn said last night that payment of the taxes has been proceeding this year about the same as last year.

John Dillinger and His Gang Disarm Three Policemen Near Chicago and Make Getaway

Kidnapers Of Little Girl Are South Of Border, Claim

Tucson, Ariz., April 30.—(P)—South of the border, beyond range of Arizona possessor's guns, the kidnappers of 6-year-old June Robles were believed tonight to be awaiting a signal from the grandfather of the girl indicating his readiness to pay them $15,000 for her return.

While Bernabe Robles, Tucson cattleman, presumably was making ready for a second trip into Mexico, to deal single handed and in cold cash with the abductors, authorities at various Mexican points denied rumors that the little girl had been found, and additional information supposedly relating to the case popped up in two parts of California.

Call Off Hunt

In Glendale, Calif., a telegram reportedly written here by an aunt of the missing girl was made public by John Mauler, uncle of June. It said the abductors had demanded the calling off of all man-hunting activities pending negotiations. Mauler said the message came from his sister, Mrs. Katherine Jones, who came to Tucson to be with June's mother, Mrs. Helen Robles.

Mauler further said the telegram expressed the belief of the Robles family that vengeance on the part of someone who had had dealings with the old cattleman might have figured in the abduction.

Carlos G. Robles, assistant county attorney here and uncle of June, the only reachable member of the family, declined to comment on the telegram and said he did not know where Mrs. Jones had written such a message.

An unexplained development was the announcement of the California state bureau of criminal identification in Sacramento that Tucson authorities had asked that the whereabouts of Richard Robles, whom California authorities identified as an abductor of the girl, be determined and that the bureau had found such a person in the Stockton State Hospital as a voluntary patient.

Clarence Morrill, chief of the Sacramento bureau, said the records of Richard Robles showed he entered that institution last February.

Guards patrolled the international line, blocking obscure paths and trails which might be used for egress from Mexico. Arizona highway patrolmen mobilized at Nogales, the border city where a half dozen American Department of Justice agents crossed into the Southern Republic on an undisclosed mission which, it was understood, would take them about eight miles to the southward.

These preparations came after it had been made known that the grandfather had directly taken in hand the job of getting back his favorite granddaughter, seized last Wednesday, and expected to encounter the abductors "somewhere in Mexico."

Events turned rapidly after the return at noon today of the grandfather from his first trip below the border—a mysterious journey that required 20 hours. Almost simultaneously with his return, a public appeal through the press was made to the abductors to make some arrangements to get their money and restore the child to her worry-wrecked family.

Robles once owned by Spanish grant of much land in this area has many friends below the border and officers reasoned that he could obtain any necessary help there in dealing with the abductors. His movements and whereabouts were kept closely guarded after his return to Tucson.

Speaking of Debts

We have talked much of the war debt owed the United States by foreign nations. Many of us have almost trothed at the mouth as we raged impotently against the international defaulters. There has been much to say in condemnation, and we feel that we were entitled to the sweep of righteous indignation in which we indulged.

But we fear the people have forgotten a mounting debt owed within the nation itself to some of its most important public servants. It is now reported that school authorities in the United States owe teachers back pay totaling $107,000,000. Declining tax receipts and reckless spending of money that should have been paid to teachers are responsible for this disgraceful condition.

Of course to us the city of Chicago is the most glaring example of defaulting on teachers' salaries. That municipality owes many of its teachers their pay for May, 1933. They have worked thru another entire school term without compensation.
There has been actual want, misery
and despair among these public spirited workers, with little effort made to alleviate their distress. Chicago's debt to its teachers is more than $2,000,000.

But the same conditions prevail elsewhere. Many rural districts and some larger cities cannot pay their teachers. In other districts teachers are working for less than the minimum NRA wages. Meanwhile the cause of education suffers from a thousand ills. Underpaid teachers, worried by financial stress, cannot do efficient work. Crimping economies made by boards of education, the cutting of courses, the shortening of school terms, all have contributed to lower the educational standards of the country at a time when there are more children seeking school opportunities than ever before, and when education is more of a necessity than ever in the history of the country.

The nation owes its teachers, but it also owes its children. If the teachers are paid, the children will be better taught. No self-respecting people should expect those who have most to do with determining the future of the country to work for nothing.

What, No Bathtubs?

The U. S. Department of Commerce is horrified to discover that nearly half of 54,300 homes in eight cities
surveyed by its workers have no bathtubs.
The survey was undertaken to discover just what is needed in the way of modern home building and improvement, and the survey revealed plenty.

But the bathtub situation is not so bad as it might seem. There are thousands of rural homes with no bathtubs, where a wash tub does just as well. The idea of bathing is not very old. It was not so long ago that the people of this city could not take baths because water was too scarce.
So far as we know, there were no casualties.

The reader may be surprised to learn that bathing was once considered dangerous to health. A bath could not be taken unless a doctor prescribed it, and most doctors would not do that. The city of Philadelphia prohibited bathtubs, and some cities levied a tax on them. For small boys those were the days of real freedom.

But of course sanitary conditions were not good, and disease was more prevalent and virulent than it is now.
Medical science has discovered that cleanliness promotes health, and life in the modern home without a bathtub
would not be very comfortable.
Millions of people have come to considered the bathtub a necessity, and they are right in their conclusions.

We Have Learned Little

The Senate Banking Committee, in reporting out the Stock Exchange bill, declares we have learned little from the market crash in 1929. That is proved by the speculative boom of 1933, which ended in the usual disaster to investors. What the bill proposes is to prevent our economic progress from being interrupted by market collapses following periods of inflation of securities prices.

But if we have learned little from our bitter experience with speculation, how much less have we learned about our entire economic structure? Do we know how to prevent depressions?
Have we found anything that will keep us from going on the economic rocks?

Great mine disasters lead to the establishment of mine rescue stations and the installation of safety devices in mines. Auto accidents have brought about traffic regulation and safety education. Legislators have passed laws to prevent loss of life following major tragedies. Studies of accidents and ways of prevention have brought good results.

But we wonder if the country has learned how to make depressions less violent and destructive, or how to prevent them altogether. Already there is a feeling that "we are coming out of it." England is recovering even more rapidly, and before long her people may remember faintly the "hard times," and forget that such conditions may come again.

Once we are out of an economic jam, we have a fatal habit of saying "Thank goodness that's over," and hoping that we shall never have another. But if we are not to have another, we must provide against it. We must use our intelligence to secure permanent economic health for our nation, and if possible, for the world.

Cost of Peace

It is doubtful if there is any other country where the anti-war sentiment is quite as wide and as deep as it is in the United States. Yet the United States government has just announced that it will start construction of 20 new warships within four months, with 75 more to be built immediately thereafter; and there is little question that this action has the endorsement of the majority of the citizens.

Why should there be this contradiction—if it is a contradiction?
For one thing, the American people trust their government not to use the fleet as an instrument of aggression;
for another, the international horizon
is by no means clear, and if a navy is to be supported at all it might just as well be kept up to the mark.

It is possible to desire peace very earnestly and still keep ready for any emergency; and that, apparently,
is what present-day Americans plan
to do.

POSTSCRIPT

The contradictions of life are many.
An observant man remarked recently that he was prowling about a certain city square when he came upon a drinking fountain which bore two conflicting inscriptions. One, the original inscription on the fountain,
was from the Bible: "And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

Above this hung a placard, "Please do not waste the water."—Nantucket Inquirer and Mirror.

The New Deal
in Washington

Politicians Will Find Fahey
of HOLC Tough to Crack
... Collusion Balked by Ickes ... Bolting Seems Profitable to Senators ...
Airmail Bids Are Lower ...
Blaine Is Hard to Replace
on RFC.

Journal and Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington, April 30.—Senator George Norris fought and bled in vain
for a law that would keep politics out of the Home Loan system.

But just as tough as any law, the politicians who killed the Norris amendment are going to find. It is Chairman John H. Fahey of HOLC.
About the time you begin to notice
camels leaping through needle-eyes without grazing a hair, you'll find Fahey welcoming incompetent Democrats into his organization.

This will be news to you, but since Fahey took hold last November he has gotten rid of seven state directors who were weak sisters or worse.

HOLC under the politician who preceded him was becoming a national scandal. Under Fahey, regardless of congress, jobs are being given out on a sheer merit basis and loans handled efficiently in accordance with need.

Graft and politics were found in one of the biggest states and Fahey started sharpening his axe for the state director.

One of Jim Farley's aides phoned and told the chairman not to do anything until the boss came back to town.

Fahey called a meeting of his board and fired the man that afternoon.

He is a handsome, white-bearded,
but active Massachusetts publisher
and business man, a former president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.
He did much to carry Massachusetts
for Roosevelt in 1932 and encompassed such reconciliation as there was between F. D. and Al Smith.

Ickes Fools 'Em

The way Secretary Ickes fooled the collusive bidders on materials for P.
W. A. projects is another new story.
"Throw 'em out!" Ickes used to shriek as sets of identical bids came in.

He said the fact that the bids were all alike, regardless of freight charges involved, showed collusion. Bidders blamed NRA price-posting provisions.

Anyway, as fast as Ickes threw 'em out, the same bids came back. So Ickes adopted a policy of accepting the bids from companies most remote from the project. That gave business and employment to railroads—and kept down profits for alleged "ring."

Bolting Seems to Pay

One of the privileges following from bolting your party's presidential candidate seems to be a choice of running on any ticket you like for re-election.

Senator Bronson Cutting of New Mexico, progressive Republican, who followed Roosevelt two years ago, is as likely to run for re-election
this year as a Democrat as he is under the G. O. P. banner.

If Cutting didn't get either major party nomination, he could still run as the candidate of the Progressive party—which he keeps in his pocket.

Senator Hiram Johnson of California, will seek renomination on Republican, Democratic and Progressive tickets and probably will win all three contests.

(Grapevine report: William Randolph Hearst, an influence in California politics, has turned against Johnson
after many years of journalistic support. Johnson displeased Hearst by voting with other Progressives for the 10 per cent income tax increase.
Hearst hates income taxes.)

Airmail Bids Lower

The new airmail bids averaged 29 cents a mile as compared with the average of 38 cents paid before the contracts were canceled. Nearly 36,000,000 miles of airmail were flown last year, so the cancellations might mean an annual saving of about $3,200,000.

Blaine Proved Worth

Roosevelt isn't finding it easy to fill the post vacated by the death of ex-Senator John J. Blaine, late director of the RFC. As a senator, Blaine was often thought to be a trifle dumb. He wasn't—and he certainly was one of the Senate's two or three bravest men.

Trouble was, he worked so hard for his constituents that he often entered floor fights inadequately prepared.
As an RFC director, removed from the public eye, Blaine showed his stuff. No more than three or four other RFC people ranked anywhere near him in ability to analyze problems quickly, see weak points, and protect the public interest.

Mayor to Observe
First Anniversary

Today is the first anniversary of the present City administration.
Mayor W. A. Wainright took office one year ago Tuesday. He expects to observe the event by carrying on his duties as mayor as usual. He feels that considerable has been accomplished in the year, and the people of the city agree that the municipal government has made progress.

Mayor Wainright has bent his efforts toward unemployment relief and the result has been several projects
of importance carried on in the city.
Sewers have been laid, alleys paved,
and work has begun on the paving of South Main street. The resurfacing of South Clay avenue is also under way.

The mayor has had daily contact with the unemployed and has been able to assist many in finding work.
He took office when the depression was still bad and the finances of the city were in serious condition. City finances are much improved.

The administration has cleaned up the water and light plant and has reduced the cost of operation at a saving to the city. Mayor Wainright is seeking funds for the improvement of the light plant. The project is before the Washington authorities, and the mayor hopes to have action on it soon. He hopes to make the chief accomplishment of the second year of his administration.

Grace S.S. Assumes
Lead in Attendance

As the result of the cooperation of the attendants in the Sunday school
on Sunday, Grace Sunday school made eighty points in the contest and assumed the lead in the triangular contest that the school is now engaged in.

Grace school with an attendance of 503 and having eighty per cent of the attendants on time, showing an increase of fifteen percent over the corresponding Sunday last year, having an offering of $16.10 which was better than three cents per attendant and with all officers and teachers present, gave the school the eighty points. The standing of the schools are now Jacksonville 130 points, Springfield 100 points and Quincy 90
points.

The members of the contesting
schools are beginning to be interested and some very close competition is expected as the contest proceeds.

Mrs. Eva C. Fields, superintendent of Chaddock Boys' School of Quincy, spoke in a very positive way of the good work being done at the school at the morning service. At the evening service, Dr. Havighurst used as a sermon topic: "The Young Man Who Was a Favorite But Unspoiled
Son."

At 6:30 the Epworth Leagues met in helpful services.

an's Foreign Missionary Society will their nephew, passed through this city Sunday enroute to Washington, D. C., to attend the dedication of the monument to his brother, William

this week.

Mr. Bryan was a clerk in the Grass-

in the Gallagher block on West State street. He grew tired of working 12 to 15 hours a day and decided to take Horace Greeley's advice. He went west and stopped in Lincoln, Neb.,
where he entered newspaper work.

His rise was rapid. He began receiving political honors, and was three times elected governor of Nebraska.
He has now decided to be a candidate for United States senator on the Democratic ticket. He was at one time mentioned for vice-president.

Westminster Choir Presents Program

A musical program of unusual interest and beauty was presented by the Westminster choir at a vesper service at the church Sunday afternoon. The chorus, directed by Miss Ainslie Moore, was assisted by Mrs. Edgar Martin, organist. Mrs. Clara Moore Nelms, violinist, and Miss Louise Turner of MacMurray College, pianist.

Using the "Agnus Dei" of Bizet as a prelude, Mrs. Martin and Miss Turner by their fine rendition set a high standard, which was sustained throughout the program, both in the quality of the selections offered and in performance.

The liturgical numbers by the choir beginning with the "Magnificat" and "Nunc Dimittis" from the D. major Mass of Field, showed thorough training and temperamental expression. The work of the choir throughout was characterized by excellent ensemble, clearness of enunciation, and fine phrasing in sustained passages.

The high point of the afternoon was reached in the "Requiem Mass" of Mozart, which is rarely presented in this country, and which was received with real appreciation by the audience. The poignant beauty of the music was revealed through the "Hostias," the "Lacrymosa" and the "Agnus Dei," reaching a climax in the "Sanctus" which was sung with precision and brilliancy.

The "Kol Nidrei" played by Mrs. Nelms, accompanied by Mrs. Martin and Miss Turner, contains a part of the ancient Jewish Atonement music, and was in harmony with the general plan of the service. It was given with fine interpretation and real artistry.

The Westminster choir has worked under the direction of Miss Moore for two years and Sunday's program showed marked progress in their training.

The Rev. William C. Meeker, pastor of the church, offered prayer and led in the responsive readings. The entire program was characterized by dignity and deeply religious atmosphere.

Two Women, Baby Hurt in Car Wreck

White Hall, April 30.—Mrs. Alfred Westerhold and Mrs. Lester Hildebrandt and baby daughter, Mary, six months old, were all injured Saturday afternoon about half past four o'clock in an auto accident near the Cleatus Reynolds home south of White Hall.

The ladies had been coming from the hospital and were coming home when the accident occurred. There were cars coming both directions on the hill when a car driven by Dr. Russell Davis of Chicago attempted to pass another car and was unable to do so and had to pull into the curb. High banks on either side of this place makes it impossible to leave the pavement. The Chicago car struck the Westerhold car and turned over. Both cars were badly damaged.

Mrs. Hildebrandt had a tooth broken, and cuts and bruises. The baby had a bad bump on her head which was X-rayed Sunday morning, and it is not now thought to be serious. Mrs. Westerhold suffered a small cut on her head and one on her hand and numerous bruises.

Dr. Davis who is a surgeon was accompanied by his wife and they were on their way to the Ozarks on a vacation trip. They were not hurt but had to remain in White Hall for repairs to be made on their car and hoped to be able to leave by Monday afternoon. Mrs. Hildebrandt and baby are being cared for in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carter on Apple Creek prairie and Mrs. Westerhold is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell in the High street neighborhood.

The place where the accident occurred is a bad place for speeding cars, as there are two long hills, and a hollow, and curves. There have been several accidents on these hills, and Sidney Goode was killed in an accident on the far hill about two years ago. Dr. Davis was not familiar with the road.

Death of Painter Infant

A baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Painter of Alsey Sunday morning at nine o'clock died at 12:30, and short funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment was made in the Boxers cemetery near Alsey. The child was named Clarence. The mother before her marriage was Miss Hazel Orris. The child is survived by the parents, and by a grandmother, Mrs. Isaac Painter of White Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. James Braucht of Peoria spent the week-end here visiting with friends, including Rollin Frame on East Lincoln street and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Johnson on East Bridgeport street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Wilkinson of Chicago visited with Mr. and Mrs. Merle Mackey Sunday, and are also visiting with friends in Roodhouse where they formerly resided.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keller, Mrs. William Elliott and Mrs. Herbert Williams were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox and V. T. Keller near Wrights, Sunday. Mr. Keller is quite ill with asthma and complications.

Don Winters and son, Raymond, drove down from Springfield Sunday and visited with relatives and friends. Don Winters expects to spend the week here doing some repair work on his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Perkins and sons Kenneth and Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phillips, and Paul Harris of Beardstown, Mr. and Mrs. John Rafferty and daughter, Wreatha, Mrs. Ruby Lewis and Floyd Kimbro of Prentice, and Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Savage of Eldred were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nash on West Franklin street.

50 More Spaces in Gardens Available

Although 150 plots in the Jacksonville community gardens have been assigned to families, there are fifty or more additional spaces ready for someone to attend, officials in charge of the work announced Saturday. Robert Allan, director of the gardens, urges that all persons receiving relief sign up for a plot in the gardens if possible.

Work in the gardens around the north and east side disposal plants is well along. Many men and women have done their planting and within a short time will be cultivating the growing crops.

The ground has been broken and prepared, so that persons signing up for plots will find the gardens ready for planting. Many kinds of seeds will be provided by the emergency relief organization for planting in these gardens.

Persons on the relief rolls who have not signed for garden plots are asked to get in touch with the garden director at once.

"I NEED HEALTHY NERVES, TOO, MR. CECIL SMITH, WITH A THRIVING FAMILY TO LOOK OUT FOR"

Robert E. Butterfield, Jr., who has two thriving youngsters, says:

"A father's job gives a fellow plenty of experience with nerve strain, too! Providing for the children keeps you keyed up to concert pitch. Then—coming home from work, with Dick insisting on movies—Bob's eternal tap dancing—that's the zero hour for a father's nerves! Although I smoke all I want, jangled nerves have passed me by. That's because I smoke Camels. Camels have the fine flavor of the choicest, most expensive tobaccos. And I find they never upset my nerves."

Cecil Smith, who rose to the top of the polo world this year with a ten-goal rating, says:

"Most polo players, myself included, smoke a great deal. And most polo players, myself included again, prefer to smoke Camels. They are milder. I like their flavor and they never upset my nerves."

How Are YOUR Nerves?

Nerves, nerves, nerves! You hear them discussed everywhere today. For most of us are more or less the victims of irritated, jumpy nerves.

If troubled that way, check up on your eating, your work, your recreation, your sleep. And to be on the safe side about "nerves," begin to smoke Camels.

Camels are made from finer, MORE

No wonder they are milder, finer in flavor, free from irritation! Make Camels your smoke! You'll be delighted with Camels' flavor... the gentle mood of enjoyment... well-being... and poise which steady smokers find in Camels.

Driver of Cass Co. Death Car Located

Beardstown, April 30.—An inquest into the death of Henry Betz, 80 year old Bluff Springs citizen, was opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon by Coroner C. H. Gersmeyer. Betz was struck and killed Saturday evening by a car driven by V. L. Gwin, 405 North First street, Springfield.

The identity of the driver of the death car was not known for some time after the lifeless form of Betz was found at the side of the hard road at Bluff Springs. The tragedy occurred about 7:30 o'clock, Gwin reporting to the police here about midnight.

Gwin explained that he was en route to Beardstown to see a friend when the accident occurred. At Bluff Springs, he said, he had just reached the end of a curve when his lights fell on a man walking across the road in front of the auto. Gwin said he swerved his automobile and ran off the road on the left and into a fence, but apparently the fender of the automobile struck Mr. Betz.

Seeing the prostrate form of the aged man beside the road, Gwin said, it frightened him so badly that he could think of nothing but to call his employer, Clarence Caston, in Springfield, and tell him of the accident. Proceeding to his friend's home in Beardstown, Gwin called Caston's home in Springfield, but Caston was not at home. Some time later, however, relatives located Caston in a theatre and told him to call Gwin at Beardstown.

Caston notified Casper H. Brown, insurance agent, and both drove to Beardstown, picked up Gwin and went to police headquarters, where they reported the details of the accident.

When Gwin explained how the accident happened, the police said they would not arrest him but ordered him to be present for an inquest scheduled for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Betz, a widely known retired farmer, was returning to his home from the post office when Gwin's automobile struck him. His body was found by Ray Hager, a neighbor.

MANY OBJECTIONS IN PETITION FOR VOTE RECOUNT

To Hold Hearing on "Dry" Law Vote in Scott County May 7th

Winchester, Ill., April 30.—In the petition filed with Bert Willis, county clerk of Scott county, to contest the recent vote here on the wet and dry question many objections are set forth against the validity of the petition filed to call the vote on the proposition and the election itself. The following signers of the petition to contest the validity of the election are made parties plaintiff to the suit against the city: H. H. Snyder, W. H. Evans, C. M. Langley and Frank Redshaw.

The petition asks that there be a recount of the ballots of said election, that the ballots, books and papers of said election be brought into court and that it be ascertained and declared that there were more ballots cast marked "no" and that illegal "yes" ballots be cast out and that said election be declared invalid and of no force and effect.

As grounds for the above relief the petition sets out in a lengthy document among other things that:

1. The petition filed to call the election does not contain the signatures of 25 per cent of the legal voters of the City of Winchester, as required by law.

2. That in most cases the post office or street address of the parties who circulated the various sheets of the petition does not appear upon their certification of that portion of the petition circulated by them.

3. That over two hundred signers of the petition failed to state their address or large number of signers of the petition failed to place the date they signed the petition opposite their signature as provided by law.

4. That a large number of signers of the petition failed to place the date they signed the petition opposite their signature as provided by law.

5. That twenty-six of the signatures appearing on the petition were not personally signed by the individuals whose names appear.

6. That the form of the petition is defective in that it fails to ask that the proposition be submitted to a vote.

7. That the form of the ballot was defective in that it did not state the proposition to be submitted to a vote.

8. That certain ballots were improperly marked and should not have been counted.

9. That the ballots were cast in the same ballot box with those cast as votes for aldermen in the various wards.

10. That in the Second ward one ballot was lost and afterwards found in a voting booth by the city clerk which ballot was not tallied and hung with the rest of the ballots and which ballot was marked "no."

11. That the ballots were not properly tallied by the judges of the election.

The election count will be heard in county court May 7th. L. T. Graham of Pittsfield is representing the wet forces.

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me" (Psalms 23:1, 4).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Either here or hereafter, suffering or Science must destroy all illusions regarding life and mind, and regenerate material sense and self." "Mortal belief must lose all satisfaction in error and sin in order to part with them. Whether mortals will learn this soon or later, and how long they will suffer the pangs of destruction, depends upon the tenacity of error" (p. 296).

from
the Chief of Police
to the Housewives
and Citizens
of Jacksonville

This is a warning to beware of Strangers posing as Solicitors or Inspectors — seeking admittance to your homes. They should not be admitted until their credentials have been checked up and verified — and that you are sure they are Local people living here in Jacksonville and entitled to your consideration.

One need not be afraid of offending the honest solicitor, salesman or inspector representing a Local Business Firm — as these men will have their credentials with them — that is why they are required to carry credentials.

Do not pay Cash in advance to Strangers — on an order — in many cases the customer has never received the merchandise — nor has any refund been made of the cash — down-payment.

Do not Cash Checks for Strangers or issue a check as a deposit on an order as often times these have been "altered" and later cashed by a third and innocent party.

It is better to be Safe than Sorry — be sure you know who the stranger is at your door before allowing him to enter your home.

In case you are suspicious — Phone the Police at once — Phone No. 18 — Do this at once — as we are anxious to co-operate with our citizens at all times.

High pressure and Free Gift artists have been working the resident district of Jacksonville recently offering something free as a means of gaining admittance in to the homes. In most instances there is nothing to be given away free — do not be lured by this high pressure type salesman.

Protect Yourself — ask for identifications of Every Stranger at your door, as often times strangers without reliable credentials are the "spotters" for professional criminals — and according to police records lack of caution on the part of the householders has often times resulted in costly property losses and bitter experiences.

FRANK BAKER,
Chief of Police.

Beware of this endless chain selling scheme

It is being worked with all kinds of merchandise—especially hosiery and underwear.

WHO WILL HOLD THE SACK?

The Latest in bargain appeals, as offered by these Hy-Jack Peddlers are the new Chain-Selling-Schemes by which merchandise is promised to coupon purchasers for a small cash consideration and a little work.

DO YOU WANT TO BECOME A PEDDLER

and prey upon your friends---if you do try this one--- here is a typical promise---made to you by the real slick peddler---

$10 WORTH OF HOSE FOR $1
Looks Good on the Face of it--What?

TRY and figure this---The Slick Peddler offers you a contract with three coupons for $4.00. Here is where you work your friends. You are to sell these coupons to three friends at $1.00 each and WHEN each of these friends send in $3.00 for similar coupon outfits or a total of $9.00 you are supposed to get $10.00 worth of some kind of hose. NOW you have made PEDDLERS out of three friends---and before they can realize anything for their cash they have that "little bit of work" to do---that is "create more Peddlers among their friends"---so on---so on--- indefinitely.

IF you do complete this very simple contract---and your hose are delivered you are out $1.00 net, your three friends are out $4.00 each---or $12.00---and this firm has collected $13.00. WHO really pays for your hose? The firm or your friends?

SUPPOSE the firm fails---after having paid for your $10.00 worth of hose out of the $13.00 collected? How could this firm refund the $12.00 invested by your friends? What about the running expenses of an office and salaries of this firm---

Who Would Hold The Sack?

IF the practice and policy of the Government in barring these Schemes from the mails is upheld by the courts, what might happen to the firm should it be denied the use of the mails? If the firm should quit voluntarily, What Then?

IT IS NOT BUSINESS SENSE to expect a firm of this kind to give each of its customers $10.00 worth of hose for $1.00. You can NOT take out of any business more than is put into it.

AGAIN---Beware of these Endless Chain Schemes---there are several varieties being offered today.

Buy YOUR
HOSIERY
From
The Following Local
Firms
And Be Assured of Satisfaction

BUYING from these firms assures you of the highest type of service, with the best possible quality for the money spent.

ALSO you see what you are buying and are better able to make satisfactory selections.

AGAIN, should there be anything wrong, or should you decide that you wish to exchange a purchase, the fault is corrected or the exchange made quickly and cheerfully.

AND in buying from these home merchants you are giving a fair deal to the business people of the community who furnish employment to hundreds of our citizens thereby making YOUR city a nicer place in which to live.

Pike County Farmer Killed When Hit by Car Saturday Night

Pittsfield, April 30.—John Jordan, a farmer residing a mile and a half north of here, was instantly killed about 11:20 o'clock Saturday night when he was struck by a car as he was walking along the road toward his home. Jordan was accompanied by Truman Fenton, who was also hit by the car and painfully injured. Fenton received a cut over the eye.

The inquest was held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Eddy chapel here. The jury returned a verdict that Jordan came to his death by being struck by a car driven by Kenneth Douglas. It was brought out at the inquest that Jordan and Fenton were walking north on the left side of the road, and that the Chevrolet coupe driven by Douglas was also traveling north.

Douglas said he had turned out to pass another machine when his car struck the two men. He was accompanied by Miss Adeline Drake, Douglas is a resident of Griggsville, where he is employed by the Mid-Continent Oil Co.

Jordan was about 65 years old. He leaves a wife and several children. His body is believed to have been carried under the car for about 75 feet. He suffered a crushed skull and the fracture of both legs.

Funeral services for Jordan will be held Wednesday morning. The fatal accident occurred on Route 103 about a mile north of Pittsfield.

Among the Modesto callers here yesterday was Mrs. Mae B. Baker.

Mrs. W. P. Gilmore of Roodhouse was shopping in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Perin of Rushville were visitors in Jacksonville Saturday. Mr. Perin, a graduate of Illinois college enjoys an occasional visit to this city, where he is welcomed by many friends. He was in the city last fall for the home-coming at Illinois college and was also here during the Centennial celebration of the college in 1929.

Mr. Perin was a member of the famous foot-ball team of 1894, captained by James M. Duer. He was a half-back and his partner on the team, Harry Frizel both had records of running 100 yards in 10 seconds, a very fast back-field for the 1894 team.

In his remarks to friends Saturday he commented, that six of the eleven men on that team have died within the last five years, namely: Dr. George Dinsmore, Samuel Hunt, Morris Justice, Harry Frizel, C. B. Rourke, and Gordon Carter.

Mr. Perin saw service in the World War, where he was connected with the hospital staff under Dr. D. M. Otis, well known surgeon of Springfield and was located for a time at Atlanta, Georgia.
